Improved Tone in the Market-Current Sales.

The week opened quietly at the Exchange salesFoom, with a limited offering for yesterday. The current announcements indicate a friner tone in the market, with every encouragement to owners of choice property. The sales on Saturday are favorably reported upon.
The sale of land situate on the Palisades, on the ndson River, which was hald on the grounds by H. Pierson, resulted in the sale of 40 acres of and for $1,400 per acre, or a total of $56,626. A

O. H. Pierson, resulted in the sale of 40 acres of land for $1,400 per acre, or a total of $56,626. A large number of persons were in attendance at the sale, but the property was sold to but two persons—viz., J. S. Tauntan and W. W. Greene.

The Supreme Court sale of the two plots of land situate on the old Macomb's Dam Read, which was held at littner's Hotel, on Saturday, by Hugh N. Oamp, resulted in the sale of the property to the plaintin in the action (the Mutual Life Insurance Company) for $2,000.

Lespinasse & Friedman report the following sales:—The lot on south side of litth street, running through to 111th street, 100 feet east of Eighth avenue, 25x200, for $1,000.

Fourteen and one-half lots on south side of 216th street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth avenues, for $26,000.

The attendance at the Exchange yesterday was meagre. The transactions were as follows:—James M. Miller sold, by order of the Court of Common Pleas, in foreclosure, the house and lot known as No. 18 Madison street (on map of Isaac Chausen). The plaintin in the action bought the property for $5,000, and afterward repudiated his purchase, so the further sale was adjourned.

There was also sold, by order of the Supreme Court, the premises on the north side of 117th street, $2.6 feet west of Third avenue, comprising a four story brick house, and lot, 27x744x63, to Mr. Overheiser, for $7,500.

TABERNACLE PREE LAY COLLEGE.

This evening the Brooklyn Tabernacle Free Lay College will be reopened, and appropriate exercises will be held in the college building in Scherthern street. The address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Duryea. Dr. Talmage, Dr. Jeffrey The college has now some 600 students and has established twenty-eight preaching stations in Brooklyn, New York and other cities. The institution itself is maintained entirely by voluntary contributions, as, iddeed, are all the institutions of the Tabernacle people.
